

Interpreter/Trainer II (two positions)

Utah State Office of Rehabilitation (under the Board of Education)

Taylorsville, UT

Application period: 1/5/2012 to 1/15/2012

Salary Range: $17.89 - $26.89

Full-time, Monday through Friday with full state employment benefits including medical, dental, life insurance, long term disability insurance, 1.5% employer contribution to 401(k), annual leave, sick leave, holiday pay, and a pension (4-year vesting). (See full announcement on website referenced below.)

Job Characteristics: Must have been an interpreter with many years of experience interpreting in various situations. Must be fluent in American Sign Language and possess state and/or national certification. Provide interpreting services for the Utah State Office of Education/Rehabilitation. Mentor interpreters who are working in the community by assisting them to effectively improve their skills to obtain certification through one-on-one feedback and provide on-going support. Provide workshops and skill development classes. Assist certification director with certification and training of raters, as well as aspects of state testing, filming and test development, work with the community to provide training and information about state laws and certification requirements. Preference will be given to individuals possessing professional or master level Utah State certification.

For complete announcement, benefit information, and to apply for this position, visit:

www.statejobs.utah.gov or <https://statejobs.utah.gov/JobAnnouncement.jsp?rid=25516>