

UNPACKING PRIVILEGE AND TRAUMA

Codas of Color Share-Shop Series

Join us
Wednesday 2/19
7pm-9pm Est.

01. Learning Objectives

This virtual Share-Shop approach to learning is how we will accomplish the following:

- Describe types of privileges held within our society & field of interpreting.
- Recognize & understand the co-existence of privilege and trauma we carry as CODAs of Color
- Analyze approaches for holding space for others while honoring our stories.
- Develop a plan for continuous growth towards healing.

What To Bring: Laptop, topic resources (what has helped you) and humble inquiry.

Target Audience: Hearing CODAs of Color

02. Presenter info

Mona McImpour, NIC

Letty Moran, NIC-Advanced

Multicultural Children of Deaf Immigrants, both Mona and Letty have unique experiences navigating the field of interpreting in the US and internationally. Drawn together by their shared passion for advocacy and ethical practice, they are recognized for their ability to guide difficult topics with sensitivity and skill. Current RID Member at Large and Member Section Chair, this dynamic duo welcomes you to explore your thoughts on identity & healing.
